

Lucky Learners Pre School February 20th—February 23rd, 2012

Highlights of this Week:

We are working on letter Ss this week.

We appreciate your work on in home-in-kind. If you have any questions about it, please call-336-4309. Please turn in February in-kind on Monday. We appreciate your time to work on this.

Social-Emotional Tip : Remember that your child cannot read your mind. Be sure to give your child one clear instruction so that he knows what it is that you want him to do.

Reminder: We go outside most days, please send hats, coats, gloves to keep warm.

Remember to listen to KBRX for School Closing due to bad weather.

Parents: It is important to read the notes, newsletter and monthly calendar. It has valid information on it the pertains to school.

Monday- NO SCHOOL

Tuesday- We sorted rubber vehicles into groups by color and kind. There is a picture of each of us in our portfolios.

Wednesday- We planted flower and grass seeds today. We will water, watch, wait while they are in the sunny window to see when they grow.

Thursday- We used shaving cream and special paint and scrapers on poster board to make picture frames.

We have begun time period three with the Teaching Strategies Gold program. We also changed some kids in each group around.

Mrs. Lori's Group

 Emma Dominick Aurora Gage Diezel Will

 Cooper Marcell Ian

Monday- NO SCHOOL

Tuesday- We made snowflakes with coffee filters, liquid paint and did a snowflake dance.

Wednesday- We made star headbands to wear. And did shoe sole rubbings.

Thursday- We sorted colored bottle caps into groups. Mrs. Lori took our pictures of sorting for our portfolios. Then we played a patterning game.

THANK YOU!! for taking time to visit with us at parent-teacher conferences Your input is very important as you are your child's first and most important teacher. We need your support to do our best with the children.
