

DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP AT O'NEILL PUBLIC SCHOOLS

On Thursday, August 27, 2015 Karen Haase from KSB School Law in Lincoln, Nebraska will be on the O'Neill High School campus where she will discuss Digital Citizenship with O'Neill Public School students in grades 5-12 throughout the day.

PARENTS AND PUBLIC -- MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Ms. Haase will also be offering a parent/public digital citizenship program that evening at 7:00 p.m. in the O'Neill High School Gymnasium. All parents in the community are HIGHLY encouraged to attend this program on August 27th at 7 p.m. in the OHS Gym. The parent/public program will last approximately one hour.

Karen Haase practices exclusively in the area of education law. Currently, her firm represents a variety of public school districts and other educational institutions across Nebraska. Ms. Haase frequently presents in-services to students and staff and speaks to all manners of education groups.

During her presentations on Digital Citizenship, Ms. Haase will discuss cyber bullying, sexting, and Internet safety with students, staff and parents. Karen will use humor, statistics, summaries of real-life cases, and discuss criminal consequences attached to the inappropriate use of social media. She will also present some of the frightening results that students who ignore Internet safety have faced. We welcome both students and parents to attend as Karen discusses the importance of digital citizenship.
