

BE SAFE

BE RESPECTFUL

BE RESPONSIBLE

THE WEEKLY FLYER

"Happiness can be found in even the darkest of times, if one only remembers to turn on the light."

~Albus Dumbledore~

Elementary News
By: Autumn Hilker

EAGLE SPORTS
By: Evan Kopecky

Mission Control
by: Annie Corkle

Hello O'Neill Elementary. Halloween is coming up real soon. I hope we all have very cool costumes. The Costume Walk is near the end of October. Red Ribbon Week was a success. Keep being drug-free kids. That's the Eagle Way! I hope you have a great week. Keep being safe, respectful, and responsible.

Have a spooktacular Halloween!!!

Weekly Memes
By: Peyton Yates

On Thursday we have the football quarter finals. On Friday we have junior high girls basketball tourney @ Wagner. There is also volleyball districts. Always remember to do it the Eagle Way.

Last week's mission was to make good choices that links to Red Ribbon Week. Here are some ways some of the students and teachers make good choices.

Jaret Corkle} "To help people."
Riley Roessler} "I'll leave my siblings alone".

Shylin Johnson} "I'll make good friends."

Mr. York} "I remember that the consequences from your choice are yours."

Emma Sedlacek} Say no to peer presser.

Special Thanks!

Special thanks goes to Elijah and Easton Kopecky for their wonderful drawing skills in the weekly comic. Also thanks to Bethany Owens for contributing the weekly quote, and Peyton Yates for his excellent photography.

Don't forget to watch the EEN

© 1984 United Feature Syndicate, Inc.