The Leadership Workshop of the O'Neil Public School Board of Education was called to order by President Jim Gotschall at 3:35 p.m., on Monday, November 11, 2013 in the meeting room at 410 East Benton. This meeting was advertised in the Holt County Independent on November 7, 2013 and over KBRX Radio.

Board Secretary Kathy Marvin called the roll with Delight Becker, Ellen Boshart, Gene Chohon, Brad Ducker, Jim Gotschall, and Amy Rowse present.

Administrators Amy Shane, Steve Brosz, Dan Woodle, and Kathy Grossnicklaus were also present. Steve Brown arrived at 3:42 p.m. and Nick Hostert arrived at 5:00 p.m.

Sallie Svatora and Marcia Herring from the Nebraska Association of School Boards were also present.

Visitors were welcomed and informed that this meeting was in compliance with the Nebraska Open Meetings Act.

Leadership Workshop

Sallie Svatora shared an overview of the e-meetings software available through the NASB. Marcia Herring led the board through a goal setting process to establish district goals for the next 3-5 years. She will take the goals statements and action items generated and present the board with a document that can be used to evaluate the superintendent and the progress toward district goals.

Amy Rowse moved, to adjourn the meeting. Gene Chohon seconded the motion. Roll call vote carried 6-0. Voting Aye: Chohon, Ducker, Gotschall, Rowse, Becker, and Boshart.

Meeting adjourned at 6:54 p.m.
