

Section 500 – Students
Student Discipline
Detention of Students

File: 505.01

Any staff member, but specifically teachers, may assign students a detention period for such actions or activities as excessive tardiness, disrupting activities or personnel in the classrooms, halls, or playgrounds, or for other actions which detract from the normal educational environment or activity which may be taking place. Such detention periods should occur either before or after school.

Legal Reference: Neb. Statute 79-254 et seq. (Student Discipline Act)