

BE SAFE

BE RESPECTFUL

BE RESPONSIBLE

THE WEEKLY FLYER

"I am a very relentless individual and have a lot more insanity coming."
~Alex Hirsch~

Elementary News

By: Annie Corkle

Hello O'Neill Elementary! It's Thanksgiving Break this week. Only three more days of school and we get Thursday and Friday off. Yay! I can't wait for the turkey, stuffing, and last but not least, the pumpkin pie. Yum! Hope you have a amazing Thanksgiving!

Please spread the news about the Wax Museum on November 22, at 1:00 to 2:15, in the O'Neill Elementary Gym. The kids from the HAL program have worked very on it, so come in to see the historical figures that have changed the world. Have a good week!

Weekly Memes

By: Winnie Huber

Eagle Activities

By : Evan Kopecky and Alex Molina

On Tuesday we have a junior high invite at home at 4:00. Next junior high girls basketball at home with Neligh at 6:30 pm. On Wednesday we have a Pre-K early dismissal at 2:30 p.m. On Thursday there is no school because of Thanksgiving vacation! Have a fun week and remember to do it the Eagle Way!

Special Thanks!

Special Thanks goes to Easton Kopecky, for his wonderful comic. Also, another thanks to Bethany Owens for contributing the weekly quote. Last but not least, Peyton with his wonderful photography!!!

Mission Control

By Autumn Hilker

This week we're doing something different for the Mission Monday. Ask people what they are thankful for.

Hope) I'm thankful for the school, teachers, this great education, and my life.

Mrs. Shoemaker) I'm thankful for my family, the OPS staff and students, and my friends.

Evan) I'm thankful for basketball and my family.

Mr. Camp) I'm thankful for all the wonderful children who thought it would be funny to see me dressed as a turkey.

"You're the best Gobble Gobble"

